

WILL AND FAITH

WHERE THERE IS A WILL, THERE IS FAITH

MEDIA KIT

MEDIA BIO

Discover the enchanting duo of Will and Faith, whose musical journey has mesmerized audiences across all 40 continental United States for nearly two decades. From their roots in South Florida to traversing the country in their RV, they've delivered thousands of unforgettable performances, captivating listeners with their dynamic blend of classic country, folk/rock, and early blues.

Along the way, Will and Faith have shared the stage with musical giants like Charlie Daniels, John Anderson, Billy Currington, Little Richard, James Cotton, and Johnny Winter, among others. This invaluable experience has honed their craft and solidified their reputation as an exceptional musical artist.

Will and Faith are thrilled to bring their expertise and energy to serve clients, from corporate events to private engagements. With over 60 years of combined performance experience, they guarantee professionalism, tailored song selection, and the perfect energy and volume to enhance any occasion.

PHOTOGRAPHY:

CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD

TESTIMONIALS:

“Whether they are doing strait up county or bluesy soul or folk rock, their sounds come through as a couple of completely relaxed musicians who don’t have to answer to anybody, who don’t have to be anywhere they don’t want to be”

“They have a matchless sound and perform a blistering show with their futuristic approach to music that nevertheless retains an authentic American style.”

“Every time I get a chance to hear them I find myself smiling from the first note to the last.”

“The love pours off the stage and crawls across the floor like the smoke from a dry ice machine.”